

South Kentuckian.

HOPKINSVILLE, JAN. 2, 1883.

Our friends have been reduced to a very small number and all are stopped when the subscription expires. Experience has taught us that this is the proper way to conduct a newspaper. We force no man to take the paper after his time is out.

SOCIALITIES.

Mr. H. H. Abernathy visited Pa. last week.

Mr. Arthur Watkins came home to spend Christmas.

Mr. J. W. Dowder spent Christmas week in Elkhart.

Mr. H. E. Howell, of Trenton, spent last Sunday in the city.

Miss Alberta Pondorger is visiting relatives in Nashville.

Mr. E. J. Campbell came home to spend the Christmas.

Mr. Bryan Hopper, spent a part of the holidays in Clarksville.

Miss Sallie Williams, of Henderson, spent last week in the city.

Mr. Ben Thompson paid a dying visit to Evansville last week.

Miss Julia Watkins, of Montgomery, was in the city last week.

Capt. Sam M. Galt, spent last week with his friends in the city.

Miss Mary Howard, of Henderson, spent last week at Mr. John Felt's.

Mrs. Anna Cowan, of Lafayette, is spending the week at Mr. W. H. West.

Mr. Robt. Mills, Jr., of Cincinnati, spent the holidays at his father's in the city.

Mrs. A. D. Rodgers and her little son, Alex, spent last week in Madisonville.

Miss Mary Hodge, of Henderson, last week was the guest of Miss Jewell Glass.

Miss Sallie Lockitt, of Henderson, spent last week with Miss Sallie Campbell.

Miss Kate Trice spent Christmas week with Miss O'Connell, at Allenville.

Mr. Ches. T. Edmondson spent a few days in South Carrollton, Ky., last week.

Mrs. Ned Gray, of Point Arcus, Cal., is visiting her brother, Judge W. P. Winfree.

Mrs. R. D. Caldwell and W. D. Deach, of Clarksville, Tenn., were in the city Sunday.

Misses Carrie Hart and Carrie Hopkins, of Henderson, is visiting at Mr. E. G. Sebree's.

Misses Minnie and Sallie Sassen, of Henderson, were among the visitors to the city last week.

Mr. John Boyd has accepted a position as salesman in the grocery and saloon of Mr. S. A. Nance, Jr.

Mrs. John H. Milliken, of Franklin, Ky., spent last week visiting her mother, Mrs. B. T. Underwood.

Mr. John J. Henry, agent for the Cheateau combination, was in the city Friday, and paid us a pleasant call.

Information was received yesterday that Rev. M. A. Mazy, formerly of this county, was lying dangerously ill of pneumonia at his home in Columbus, Tenn.

Miss Lillie Nunn, a bright and vivacious young lady of Uxville, Tex., who is attending school at Nashville, Tenn., spent the holidays at Col. E. A. Syper's. Miss Annie Henry, of the county, also spent the week with Mrs. Syper.

Mr. John W. Benthall, Jr., left last week for Fort Worth, Texas, to accept a position with the white oak and blue house of Martin & Evans. Mr. Benthall is one of our most popular young gentlemen and his friends are loth to part with him both in the social and business circles of the city.

Mr. James Bird Campbell, one of the most universally popular young gentlemen of this city, left yesterday for Fresno, California, to take up his home for the future. It is with infinite regret that we note his departure. He will be missed from amongst our young men and it is quite likely that some female hearts will be saddened by his departure. He has our fatherly blessing and best wishes.

Leg Cut Off.

John Bird, a brakeman on the L. & N. railroad, fell upon the track at Petersburg Sunday the 31st, and had the flesh of one of his legs so mangled and torn that the limb had to be amputated. It was taken off by Dr. Enque, of this city. Bird lives at Crofton and we go to press his condition is reported almost hopeless and his recovery is considered impossible. He was a good reliable employee and was to have been made a conductor in a few days.

Fatal Railroad Accident

Last week was one prolific of accidents. Four weeks of minor importance occurred in as many days, and on Monday morning Jan. 1, at 1 o'clock, a freight train was wrecked at Baker's Hill, Tenn., and five cars thrown from the track. A brakeman named Fred Carnoy, was killed outright in the wreck.

"Buckupaba."

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Affections.

HERE AND THERE.

Christmas was very dull. W. F. Patton, Life Insurance. "London Assurance," Jan. 4th. The Chautauque Thursday night. Preaching at Shiloh next Sunday. Norwood & Gant, fire insurance.

Miss Mollie Martin, fire insurance. A special term of the Christian Circuit Court has been called for Jan. 29th.

The advertisement of the Taylors-Chautauque combination appears elsewhere.

Harry Tandy will be the South Kentuckian carrier for this year. He will begin to-day.

There were Christmas trees at the colored Methodist and Baptist churches on the evening of the 25th, ult.

The Christmas tree at the Second Presbyterian church was heavily loaded with presents for the Sunday School children.

The "Kentucky Minstrels," a colored amateur company, composed of local talent, gave a show at the court-house Friday night.

Mrs. Chanfreau's rendition of the celebrated "Hunting Speech," in the character of "Lady Gay Spenser," is said to be unequalled by any living artist.

We ordered 62 copies of the Court-Journal for our subscribers during last year. This is an increase of 20 over the previous year. Our club rates are $2.75.

Madisonville is no longer a telephone station. We do not know whether the station has been abolished permanently or not, but we hope it is only temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. Chanfreau will both appear in the same play, "London Assurance," next Thursday night. They are the favorites of our people and will draw a full house. Tickets at the usual place at popular prices.

The horses attached to Hopkins transfer wagon ran away, Saturday afternoon, and came at full speed down Nashville street from the depot to Main, where they were stopped without any damage being done.

Rev. J. W. Venable, of Versailles, Ky., the new Rector of Grace Episcopal church, will arrive this week and will preach at the court house next Sunday and will continue to preach there every Sunday until the new church is finished.

Our friends will now find us comfortably located in our new quarters on Nashville street. The rooms, location and arrangement, are a big improvement on our old stand and we are now ready to begin the new year with a better office than we have ever had before.

Our carrier, Jos. F. Galt, desires to return his thanks to those who so generously helped him when he delivered his annual address on Christmas day. He received enough quarters and half-dollars to aggregate quite a handsome sum, for which he is truly and sincerely grateful.

Mr. Joe. Humber, of this county, lost a yearling colt some weeks since and last week it was found in a sink twelve feet deep still living, having gone without food or water for 32 days. It was taken out and is still alive, although it was hardly able to stand. Mr. Humber thinks with careful treatment it can be brought around all right.

Don't forget that the South Kentuckian office is the only place in Hopkinsville where you can get all kinds of paper bags. We handle the "Anchor Brand" and "Satchel Brand" both and guarantee our goods to be just what we represent. We furnish them with or without printing. Call and inspect our stock.

The post office was moved into its new quarters on Bridge street last Thursday. Sixty-one lock boxes are already up and they were all taken in a few hours. 360 delivery boxes will be received in a day or two. The new office will be well arranged and fitted up with all the latest improvements.

The C. W. C. A. donated the sum of $52.00 to the fire sufferers in October. This was given from their treasury and not as the result of the concert given, which was not under the management of the Association. This body is doing a great deal of good in the city, and should be fostered and encouraged. It meets every second and fourth Wednesday at the various churches alternately.

There will be a public competitive drill of the Court House to-night, and at its conclusion an elegant cold meal will be awarded to the best drilled man in "Co. D." The medal cost about $30, and was purchased by the company a few days since to be awarded to the best drilled man. The Court House will be well lighted and heated and the public is invited to attend the drill.

Charlie Metcalfe prepared a most delicious Christmas supper in his room last Monday evening to which he invited a number of his young gentlemen friends. Charlie never does things by halves and on this occasion he set for the delectation of his guests one of the handsomest and most tempting tables it has been our pleasure to see and help demolish for a month of Sundays. Everything in the way of substantial as well as cakes, ambrosia, salads, etc., etc., was provided in the greatest abundance. About twenty young gentlemen were present and partook

State Teachers' Association.

The Kentucky State Teachers' Association met in this city Dec. 26, 1882, and continued in session three days. The attendance was small but the meeting was one of much interest and pleasure.

The Association was called to order at 7 o'clock P. M., Tuesday the 26th, by Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, the President, of Louisville. Prof. A. S. Lovevial, the Secretary, being absent Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville, was chosen Secretary pro tem.

There were welcome delivered by Mr. E. L. Powell of this city will appear next week. It was responded to by Dr. J. Dasha Pickett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, in a speech of ten minutes.

The President then delivered an address on "The Needs of the Public Schools," and after music by the children of the Hopkinsville Public Schools, with Miss Kate McDaniel at the organ, the meeting adjourned.

The Association met pursuant to adjournment at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. After prayer by Dr. Pickett, the chair proceeded to announce the following committees: Committee on Organization—Prof. C. H. Dietrich, of Hopkinsville; Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville; Miss Jessie Stewart, of Louisville; and the following Committee on Resolutions: Maj. W. J. Davis, of Louisville; Miss Laura Mayo, of Hopkinsville; and Prof. W. J. Furlish, of Eddyville.

Dr. J. H. Reynolds was, on motion, made Hall Secretary. Prof. S. A. Chambers, of Henderson, read a paper on "Kentucky's Educational Outlook," which was discussed by several members.

An afternoon session was held on Dec. 26, 1882, of pneumonia, Mr. C. W. Ricketts, in the 61st year of his age.

Mr. Ricketts was a brother of Mr. J. T. Ricketts, of this city and was one of the best known and most esteemed citizens of Trigg county. He had for several years been identified with the Hopkinsville tobacco market and he has many friends here who mourned his death with deep regret. He had for many years been a member of the Baptist church at Ballville and was a consistent and useful member. He leaves no family excepting a grown son.

At her residence two miles west of Hopkinsville, Friday Dec. 30, 1882, Miss Ella Gans.

At the residence of her husband in this county, Friday Dec. 30, 1882, Mrs. Samuel Boyd.

MARRIED.

DAY—RODMAN: At the Ford House, Henderson, Ky., at 12 o'clock Saturday night, Dec. 30, 1882, Col. J. C. Day, of this city, to Miss Mattie Rodman, of Henderson. The wedding was set for Jan. 18, but when Col. Day went to see his betrothed Saturday evening he found that he was likely to encounter opposition, so they repaired to the hotel where they were married without ceremony.

Col. Day is the popular tobacco auctioneer of this city. He returned to this city with his bride Sunday night.

WARREN—MANN: At the residence of her brother-in-law, Mr. Ed. W. Walker, Monday, Jan. 1st, 1883, at 3 o'clock P. M., Mr. J. Dudley Ware to Miss Bettie Mann. Mr. Ware is one of the most prominent and popular young merchants of this city. He has been one of the most beautiful and attractive young ladies of this county and his friends will heartily congratulate him upon his good fortune. The newly married couple have taken rooms at Mr. William Cowen's. May life be to them one continued season of unalloyed happiness, is our earnest wish.

HEAGERTY—McKENZIE: At the residence of the bride's parents, in Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 7, 1882, Mr. Joe. Heagerty, formerly of this city, to Miss Lizzy McKenzie, of Nashville. Mr. Heagerty is a brother to Mr. Thos. Heagerty, of this city, and is an industrious and reliable young merchant. We wish for him unbounded happiness in the years to come.

DIED.

RICKETTS: At his residence near Montgomery, Ky., Tuesday morning Dec. 26, 1882, of pneumonia, Mr. C. W. Ricketts, in the 61st year of his age.

Mr. Ricketts was a brother of Mr. J. T. Ricketts, of this city and was one of the best known and most esteemed citizens of Trigg county. He had for several years been identified with the Hopkinsville tobacco market and he has many friends here who mourned his death with deep regret. Odd Fellows' Item.

On last Thursday evening accompanied by D. D. G. Patriarch, R. M. Anderson, of Morley Encampment, No. 31, I. O. O. F., I visited Bethel Encampment, No. 29, at Trenton, Ky. Upon our arrival at the depot Mr. R. H. Moody took us in charge and the time passed pleasantly during the afternoon. About 7 o'clock, we were informed by our friend Jim McElwaine that we were wanted. Being escorted to Dyona Hill we found a table spread with good things to eat, provided by Mrs. Grey, Mrs. Bassford, and Miss Ed. Davison, given by Attalia Lodge, No. 14, I. O. O. F.

thanks for the pleasure of the hour. After supper we visited Bethel Encampment and D. D. G. P. Anderson instructed the members in the work of the order, after which we visited Attalia Lodge No. 94, where we were cordially received. Among those who took special pains to make our short stay pleasant were Messrs R. H. Moody, L. D. Wallace and Jim and Ed. McElwaine. The visit will ever be one among the pleasantly remembered occasions of our life.
